

Tips for Studying Revelation 5:1-14

1. Observe the structure and flow of the vision in Revelation 5:1-14. Outline the logical progression of the vision.
2. Central Themes: Seeing the flow or progression, what are the central themes / central figure in the vision?
3. The details of the vision: We may not know the exact significance of every detail, but we can appreciate the imagery and the details of key elements. Observe the details (don't guess). Don't get overwhelmed by trying to determine what things exactly refer to in the future; instead, focus on key figures in the vision.
  - a. Example: Book (we don't know exact contents of book)
    - i. Sealed Up with 7 seals.
    - ii. Only one worthy can open
    - iii. No one is able
      1. But how can we summarize the description given in the book?
  - b. Example: The Lion
  - c. Details: What are the details of Christ in this vision?
4. What should our reaction to this vision be?

Revelation 5:1–14 (NASB95)

<sup>1</sup> I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a book written inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals. <sup>2</sup> And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?” <sup>3</sup> And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look into it. <sup>4</sup> Then I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it; <sup>5</sup> and one of the elders said to me, “Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals.” <sup>6</sup> And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup> And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne. <sup>8</sup> When He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup> And they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation. <sup>10</sup> “You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth.” <sup>11</sup> Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup> saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing.” <sup>13</sup> And every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying, “To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever.” <sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen.” And the elders fell down and worshipped.
